TURKISH EMBASSY
LONDON

1800/4-623-80

23rd December, 1980.

Dear Mr Secretary General,

As I have already informed you your letters addressed to General Kenan Evren have been forwarded to their high destination through the Turkish Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

I have been recently informed by the Ministry that the measures envisaged by the existing Turkish laws will be applied to Mr. Necmettin Erbakan and to some other detained members of the National Salvation Party and that no special court has been set up nor have new laws been enacted for this purpose.

Furthermore there are in Turkey many lawyers who would be able to defend them.

I wish to add personally that their trial will be conducted in absolute impartiality by the independent Turkish judges.

Yours Sincerely!

Vahap Aşiroglu
Ambassador

Mr. Salem Azzam,
Secretary General,
Islamic Council of Europe,
16, Grosvenor Crescent,
London SW1 7EP